OFFICE OF THE GENERAL VICE PRESIDENT

May 1, 2014

To: All Recording Secretaries of Local Lodges and Secretary-Treasurers of District Lodges in the United States and Canada

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Over the last few years, the IAM has made a concerted effort to invite our youngest members into the union process. We started with small focus groups, hosted a young worker symposium and in January of this year we conducted our first IAM Young Worker and Emerging Leader conference. Each of these events has helped to mold and direct our Young Machinists program. Survey response and feedback have been instrumental in crafting our next step.

Expansion of educational programs has consistently been at the top of every list when young workers are asked what they want. To fill that gap, we're adding a Young Workers Pilot Program to be held at the William W. Winpisinger Education and Technology Center in Hollywood, MD. The curriculum will include classes to reinforce skills touched upon in previous workshops and additional areas of instruction to expand each participant's knowledge base. Overall, members attending the program will return to their lodges with the tools and motivation to become more engaged in union business – the beginning steps to securing strong IAM leaders for the future.

The program will be held August 3-8, 2014, at the IAM's education facility in Hollywood, MD. Enclosed in this communication are the enrollment forms that must be completed and returned before June 6, 2014. As with the other programs, travel will be scheduled through the Winpisinger Center. Participants will be housed in the dormitory and meals provided in the dining hall. Lost time is an expense borne by the lodge.

I've been energized and impressed with my encounters with our Young Machinists. I'm excited about this program and taking the next step in developing tomorrow's leaders. I look forward to your lodge's participation. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact my office at 301-967-4747.

In solidarity,

Diane M. Babineaux
General Vice President
